IFLR1000 has named partners Jennifer B. Ezring and Kimberly C. Petillo-Décossard as Women Leaders for 2021, recognizing them as two of the leading female transactional lawyers in the United States. IFLR1000 Women Leaders have impressive track records and are consistently recommended by clients and peers for the quality of their advice and service.

Each year the IFLR1000 undertakes research evaluating lawyers and firms on the basis of transactional experience and market feedback. During the process their research team in Hong Kong, London and New York evaluates thousands of submissions and survey data of thousands of client referees and peers, and conduct hundreds of interviews before nominating individuals for Women Leaders.
