
Cahill Honored at the Feerick Center for Social Justice 2021 Awards & Benefit Reception

Date: 07/21/21

Cahill, along with Chairman Bill Hartnett and Pro Bono Counsel Artemis Anninos, was honored with the Champion of Justice Award at the Feerick Center for Social Justice 2021 Awards & Benefit Reception on October 18, 2021. The award recognizes the firm's accomplished pro bono program, especially the leadership of Bill and Artemis, including its pro bono service to clients in asylum, immigration, criminal proceedings, microenterprise issues, international custody disputes and domestic violence matters.

Fordham Law's Feerick Center for Social Justice works with students, alumni, lawyers, and community volunteers to connect low-income New Yorkers to the legal resources they need and cannot afford. The Center trains law students and others to engage in social change efforts and seeks to frame concrete, achievable solutions to discrete problems of urban poverty.
