

Brock Bosson Named as a Notable Veteran Executive

Date: 11/08/21

Cahill Partner and founder of the Firm's Pro Bono Veterans' New Business Initiative, Brock Bosson, has been recognized as a Notable Veteran Executive by Crain's New York Business for his achievements in his legal practice, drawing from his experience as a prosecutor and conducting cross-border compliance work in the U.S. Army, as well as his continued dedication to provide mentorship for other veterans around the city and beyond.

Crain's Notable Veteran Executives list honors the remarkable leaders in New York City who have brought the best of their military experience and training to their work. The nearly 750,000 veterans who live in New York state have made and continue to make significant contributions to local organizations in industries such as construction, entertainment, financial services, health care, law and real estate.

---

Attorney

- Brockton B. Bosson