

Partners Jennifer B. Ezring and Kimberly C. Petillo-Décossard Recognized as IFLR1000 Women Leaders for 2022

Date: 03/31/22

IFLR1000 has named partners Jennifer B. Ezring and Kimberly C. Petillo-Décossard as Women Leaders for 2022 in the practice areas of banking and M&A, respectively. Those recognized in this year's fifth edition of IFLR1000 Women Leaders are among the leading female transactional lawyers in the United States. IFLR1000 Women Leaders comprise an elite group of lawyers with outstanding reputations within their markets and expertise working on complex deals.

Each year the IFLR1000 undertakes research evaluating lawyers and firms on the basis of transactional experience and market feedback. During the process, their research teams in Hong Kong, London and New York evaluate thousands of submissions and survey data of thousands of client referees and peers, and conduct hundreds of interviews before nominating individuals for Women Leaders.
