

Helene Banks Named a 2023 Notable Leader in Sustainability by Crain's New York Business

Date: 04/17/23

Cahill partner Helene Banks has been recognized by Crain's New York Business as a 2023 Notable Leader in Sustainability. As chair of the firm's M&A and Corporate Advisory practice, Helene launched the firm's ESG efforts, carving out a space as a thought leader, leading dealmaker and much-sought corporate advisor. She is a prolific author on ESG and the law, recently writing over half a dozen articles for outlets including The Deal, Practical Law, NACD Directorship, New York Law Journal, and Law360.

Crain's Notable Leaders in Sustainability features top executives in the New York area for their success in making measurable impacts to enhance the environment through corporate stewardship. To learn more and view the full feature, please click here.

Attorney

- Helene R. Banks