
Cahill Awarded Top Distinctions by Chambers USA 2023

Date: 06/02/23

Chambers USA once again has named Cahill a leading law firm in various transactional, litigation, and regulatory practice categories as part of the publication's 2023 guide. Beyond the firm's 18 practice area recognitions, 29 Cahill lawyers have been acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields, including in the Band 1 and Eminent Practitioner categories. Cahill lawyers are highly ranked in both the USA – Nationwide, New York and Washington D.C. tables in Banking & Finance; Capital Markets: Debt & Equity: Eastern United States; Antitrust; White Collar Crime & Government Investigations; FCPA; General Commercial Litigation; Securities Litigation; Financial Services Regulation: Broker Dealer: Enforcement; Intellectual Property: Patent; Bankruptcy/Restructuring; Tax; Telecom, Broadcast & Satellite; Insurance: Dispute Resolution: Insurer; Environment: Mainly Transactional; and Media & Entertainment: First Amendment Litigation.

For the twelfth consecutive year, Cahill was named a Band 1 firm nationwide in Capital Markets: High Yield Products, with one client applauding Cahill attorneys for their, "strong commercial awareness of trends in our market from both a legal and business perspective."

Cahill has been ranked for sixteen years in the area of Banking & Finance, and is ranked in Band 1 for both Chambers' nationwide and New York state tables, noting that the Cahill Banking & Finance team is "exceptional" and are "able to handle super complicated matters."

Nationwide, Cahill was also ranked very highly in Capital Markets: Equity: Manager Representation, Capital Markets: Investment Grade Debt: Manager Representation and Insurance: Dispute Resolution: Insurer.

On the litigation front, Chambers USA ranked Cahill highly in the prestigious "Elite" table for New York White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations, highlighting the team for their "experienced trial lawyers who have appeared both on the government and private side in some of the most high-profile enforcement matters in recent years." Additionally, Cahill is ranked in Band 1 in the "Highly Regarded" nationwide table for Corporate Crime & Investigations, as clients praised Cahill as "real players in the market" with "deep knowledge when it comes to the financial sector."

Cahill again ranked among New York's "Elite" firms for Commercial Litigation for the fifteenth consecutive year with Chambers USA lauding Cahill's "impressive strength in large-scale class actions that sees them attract a top-notch financial client base, while also demonstrating strength in areas such as life sciences." Chambers USA also ranked Cahill's Securities and Insurance teams as among the top practices in New York in their newest guide.

In the New York region, Chambers USA ranked Cahill's Antitrust, First Amendment Litigation, Environmental and Tax practices, highlighting the breadth of knowledge of the firm's lawyers across these different areas. Commentators on Cahill's Antitrust practice said, "The Cahill Gordon team is amazing to work with and extremely responsive."

Newly ranked this year by Chambers USA are our Telecom, Broadcast & Satellite practice in D.C. and our First Amendment Litigation practice in the USA – Nationwide table. When asked about Cahill's work in Telecom, Broadcast & Satellite, clients noted, "the level of service we get with Cahill reflects their knowledge and expertise on the telecom landscape."
