
Helene Banks Named Among the Top Women Leaders of New York for 2023 by Women We Admire

Date: 11/03/23

Helene Banks, chair of Cahill's M&A and Corporate Advisory practice groups, has once again been named among the Top Women Leaders of New York for 2023 by Women We Admire. This year's awardees span across a variety of industries where they are consistently breaking barriers into new and innovative territories. Their accomplishments join the history of women in New York who have made significant contributions in areas such as tourism, media, advertising, legal services, fashion, the arts, and much more. Their presence not only fosters diversity and inclusivity within teams but also stands as a source of inspiration for upcoming generations of women to pursue careers in any field of their choice.

For more information and to see the full list of awardees, please click here.

Attorney

- Helene R. Banks