
Beth Yahl Named to Bloomberg Law's 2025 'They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40' List

Date: 08/12/25

Cahill partner Beth Yahl has been recognized among Bloomberg Law's 2025 "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40" honorees, highlighting her achievements in complex financing transactions and her leadership in our Banking & Finance practice.

Bloomberg Law's annual list celebrates top young lawyers nationwide who have achieved significant success in their practices and demonstrated leadership in the legal profession.

In her profile, Beth was praised for her work supporting Platinum Equity's leveraged buyout of Kohler Energy, a challenging multi-jurisdictional structure involving borrowing base assets in several countries, and the spin-off of Fortress Transportation and Infrastructure LLC's aviation and infrastructure businesses during a volatile market. In her own words, Beth noted that "success has only one measure: getting a complex deal across the finish line," particularly in cross-border transactions that require navigating multiple jurisdictions and parties to meet tight deadlines.

To learn more, click here (subscription required) or below.

Attorney

- Elizabeth Yahl