
Cahill Named Finalist in Two Categories at 2025 American Lawyer Industry Awards

Date: 08/14/25

Cahill has been named a finalist in two categories at the 2025 American Lawyer Industry Awards: Best Business Team and Best Professional Development Initiative.

The Best Business Team recognition reflects the outstanding performance of Cahill's marketing team in supporting the firm's strategic initiatives and client engagement.

The Best Professional Development Initiative recognition highlights the strength and impact of our innovative training and development program, Cahill Academy, which offers over 200 programs annually to help attorneys at all levels of experience to develop a foundation of substantive skills and knowledge.

These recognitions underscore the firm's commitment to delivering exceptional client service and fostering professional growth.

The award winners will be honored at the annual gala on November 13 at Cipriani Wall Street in New York City.

To learn more, click here.