
Cahill Named Among Top 20 Firms for Midlevel Associate Satisfaction by The American Lawyer

Date: 09/09/25

Cahill has been recognized by The American Lawyer in its annual Midlevel Associates Survey as one of the top 20 firms nationwide for midlevel associate satisfaction.

The survey asked third-, fourth-, and fifth-year associates across leading law firms to evaluate their firms based on a range of criteria, including compensation and benefits, training and guidance, relations with partners and other associates, and management transparency. The results noted that effective guidance and training remain central to associate satisfaction. Cahill associates rated their experiences highly, placing the firm among the leaders in key areas such as mentorship, partner relationships, and career development.

Cahill's strong placement underscores the firm's ongoing commitment to investing in the professional growth of its associates and maintaining a culture where mentorship and collaboration are prioritized.
