
Cahill Recognized in GIR 100 2025

Date: 11/14/25

Cahill has been named to the Global Investigations Review (GIR) 100 for another consecutive year, maintaining its standing as one of the world's leading investigation law firms.

In its recognition, GIR highlighted Cahill's White-Collar Defense and Investigations practice for its "disciplined, strategically managed approach to complex enforcement and regulatory matters." Another client notes that "there is no other law firm that delivers the level of service that Cahill consistently delivers."

The GIR 100 spotlights the leading firms in corporate investigations worldwide. Each year, GIR editors select firms based on their demonstrated ability to handle sophisticated, cross-border government-led and internal investigations.

To learn more, click here.

Attorney

- Edward C. O'Callaghan

Practice

- Congressional Investigations