Lawdragon Names Cahill Partner Sneha Jha to their 2026 Next Generation List

Date: 06/05/26

Cahill is pleased to announce that Private Credit partner Sneha Jha has been named to “The 2026 Lawdragon 500 X – The Next Generation,” a guide recognizing lawyers who have distinguished themselves early in their careers and are helping shape the future of the legal profession.

Sneha was recognized for her work in private credit, reflecting her experience advising leading private credit funds and other financial institutions on complex financing transactions. Sneha is among a distinguished group of attorneys recognized for their professional accomplishments, leadership and contributions to the legal industry.

Now in its fourth edition, the Lawdragon 500 X guide honors lawyers who have made a significant impact within a few years of practice. Honorees are selected through Lawdragon’s editorial research process.
