
Cahill Team Named Law360 “Legal Lions of the Week” for Grubhub First Amendment Victory

Date: 08/07/26

Cahill partner and co-chair of the firm’s First Amendment & Media Litigation practice, Joel Kurtzberg, and associate Jason Rozbruch were recognized by Law360 as “Legal Lions of the Week” for securing a complete victory for Grubhub before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

The Second Circuit affirmed a decision striking down a New York City ordinance on First Amendment grounds that would have required third-party delivery services to disclose customer information and ordering history to restaurants without obtaining customers’ express consent.

“Legal Lions of the Week” is a weekly roundup recognizing law firms and attorneys that secured notable litigation victories or other significant legal wins during the preceding week.

Read the full Law360 article here.

Read more on the litigation victory here.

Attorneys

- Joel Kurtzberg
- Jason D. Rozbruch

Practices

- First Amendment & Media Litigation
- Commercial Litigation