
Landis Best Named 2026 Top 250 Women in Litigation – Northeast by Benchmark Litigation

Date: 08/21/26

Cahill partner Landis Best has been recognized by Benchmark Litigation in the “2026 Top 250 Women in Litigation – Northeast” rankings guide.

As Co-Chair of Cahill’s First Amendment & Media Litigation practice group, Landis represents global corporations, multinational financial institutions, and leading media companies in litigation and appeals, as well as before government and regulatory bodies.

Each year, Benchmark recognizes the achievements of women lawyers across the United States following substantive reviews of their professional activities, client feedback surveys and one-on-one interviews. Benchmark says that those receiving this recognition have “participat[ed] in some of the most impactful litigation matters in recent history, as well as [earned] the hard-won respect of their peers and clients.”

To learn more, click here.

Attorney

- Landis C. Best

Practices

- First Amendment & Media Litigation
- Securities Litigation, Regulation & Enforcement
- Corporate Governance & Compliance Advisory
- Commercial Litigation
- White Collar Defense & Investigations