
Juliana Obregon Named Among ABF Journal's Top Women in Specialty Finance

Date: 09/09/26

Cahill partner Juliana Obregon has been named one of ABF Journal's 2026 Top Women in Specialty Finance.

Juliana was recognized for her extensive work representing clients in leveraged finance, capital markets, and private credit matters across the manufacturing, healthcare, and retail sectors. In addition to her distinguished finance practice, Juliana is also an exceptional leader at Cahill, teaching asset-based lending and other finance workshops for associates, chairing the Working Parents Committee, and leading mentoring circles for female attorneys.

Each year, ABF Journal honors female trailblazers in the field of specialty finance who develop innovative solutions to evolving financial challenges and support the next generation of female attorneys.

For more information about this year's Top Women, click here.

Attorney

- Juliana Obregon

Practices

- Banking & Finance
- Capital Markets