
Cahill Strengthens Its Position in the UK Market with New Chambers UK 2027 Rankings

Date: 10/15/26

Cahill has earned new rankings in the Chambers UK 2027 guide, with practice and individual lawyer rankings across key transactional and litigation practices.

These rankings underscore the continued growth and strength of the firm's London office, which is anchored by a distinguished team of lawyers advising clients across complex financings and litigation matters. The practice areas and lawyers recognized in the Chambers UK 2027 guide include:

- Banking Litigation (UK-wide): The firm received a new ranking for its Banking Litigation practice. One client noted, "Cahill Gordon & Reindel is absolutely brilliant. The team gives you incredible quality and total dedication and works unbelievably hard." Another client added, "The firm is hard-working and responsive. It has a lot of banking clients, giving it in-depth knowledge of how a bank fundamentally works and the ability to tailor advice to banks."
- Ranked lawyer: Partner Thomas Rocher was described as an "absolute superstar of the future. He is brilliant; incredibly charming, clients love him, and he is a really clever lawyer."
- Capital Markets: High-Yield Products (UK-wide)
- Ranked lawyer: Partner Andrew Kelly received an individual ranking. Clients note, "Andrew is incredibly smart, sharp, and always across the detail on all key points. He combines great legal practice with incredible humility and is an absolute joy to work with."
- Leveraged Finance: Big Ticket (London)
- Ranked lawyer: Jeremy Duffy, chair of the firm's European Leveraged Finance practice, once again earned an individual ranking with the following client feedback: "Jeremy is the hardest-working and most responsive lawyer I have ever worked with."

Chambers UK is a leading legal industry guide that recognizes top law firms and lawyers across the UK. Rankings are based on independent research, including analysis of significant matters and extensive feedback from clients and other market participants, with firms and lawyers evaluated on factors such as technical ability, client service and commercial insight.
