
Cahill Honored with The Legal Aid Society's 2015 Pro Bono Publico Award

Date: 11/09/15

External Link: The Legal Aid Society of New York website

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP has again been honored by The Legal Aid Society of New York with the Society's Pro Bono Publico Award. Cahill lawyers have been honored with The Legal Aid Society's Pro Bono Award each year since 2005, when the firm began to work closely with pro bono clients of the Kathryn A. McDonald Educational Advocacy Project of the Juvenile Rights Practice. The 2015 award recognized Cahill for the firm's sustained commitment to providing pro bono assistance to both the Society and its clients. Cahill Associates Behesht Heidary and Eric Weinstein were also recognized with individual awards for their contributions in representing pro bono clients.

In partnership with the Legal Aid Society, Cahill provides pro bono representation to young children who are subjects of abuse and neglect proceedings in New York Family Courts, disabled individuals in need of social security benefits, tenants who are denied the most basic of services and indigent defendants in criminal appeals.

Attorney

- David G. Januszewski