In a new article, Bloomberg Law reviews the annual numbers from Capital Markets, noting the exemplary work of a few specific Big Law Firms, including Cahill. The news outlet highlighted the $440 billion of high-yield debt issued, with Cahill advising on nearly $100 billion worth of these deals, "leading the way among law firms." Cahill Executive Committee Chairman William Hartnett commented that "2020 was 'a very strong year' for the firm in both corporate and litigation."
