
Banking & Finance

Cahill's Banking & Finance practice is among the top-ranked in the world. Cahill's lawyers advise leading commercial and investment banks in complex financing transactions while also counseling mezzanine lenders in leveraged and strategic transactions, earning Band 1 recognition from Chambers USA in Banking & Finance and a Tier 1 ranking from The Legal 500 US in the Commercial Lending.

Recognized as a Practice Group of the Year by Law360 for two consecutive years, our Banking & Finance practice operates across all major industries, including business services, e-commerce, energy, entertainment, financial services, food & grocery, healthcare, infrastructure, manufacturing, oil & gas, pharmaceuticals, real estate, telecommunications, and travel.

Clients rely on Cahill to deliver solutions-focused advice and deal execution in some of the most challenging transactions in the market today across:

- Leveraged finance
- Investment grade finance
- Asset-based lending
- Private credit & direct lending
- Middle market lending
- Project finance

Our transactions further span acquisition financings, leveraged buyouts, going-private transactions, recapitalizations, project financings, bridge lending, and loan commitments. Cahill's Capital Markets and Banking practices are highly integrated, making it seamless for companies and financial institutions executing multiple simultaneous financings.

Leveraged Lending

Widely recognized as the leading law firm in leveraged finance, Cahill has served the leveraged lending market since its inception and represented the financing sources in nine of the ten largest U.S.-based leveraged buyouts completed to date. Today, the firm regularly advises on twice the deal volume of its nearest competitor, and the firm is often the first call for banks seeking leveraged transactions. Cahill has long and close working relationships with many of the world's most prominent international banking institutions, regularly advising lenders such as Credit Suisse, Citigroup, Deutsche Bank, JP Morgan Securities, and Morgan Stanley, among others.

In the U.S. loan market, Cahill consistently ranks first in manager representation in the industry league tables:

- Cahill has been the top ranked legal adviser to U.S. lead arrangers of leveraged loans since 2010, as measured by LSEG Loan Connector. In 2024, Cahill led this category once again.
- Bloomberg ranked Cahill as #1 legal advisor to U.S. lenders of leveraged loans by volume in 2024.
- Debtwire ranked Cahill first in 2024 for legal counsel to North American lead banks by volume.
- In 2024, Cahill secured the #1 spot across three other Debtwire league tables by volume for legal counsel to lead banks of North American leveraged loans. Categories included M&A leveraged loans, institutional leveraged loans, and M&A institutional leveraged loans.

London Leveraged Finance and English Law Lending

Cahill has an expanded finance offering in London following the addition of an English law finance practice and additional New York law finance capabilities. To learn more about our London leveraged finance capabilities, click here.

Investment Grade Lending

Cahill has extensive experience advising clients in significant investment grade lending matters. We advise on a broad range of investment grade lending transactions, including acquisition financings, bridge financings, syndicated lending, working capital and backstop facilities, project financings, debt refinancings, recapitalizations, and restructurings.

Asset-Based Lending

Cahill advises financial institutions across the full range of asset-based lending (ABL) matters including traditional commercial and corporate finance transactions, leveraged acquisitions, and debtor in possession financings. Our team advises on complex cross-border and other international lending ABL structures and also counsels private equity sponsors as they have increasingly introduced ABLs into their committed financing structures. Cahill's partners, who often work across multiple practice areas, are especially well-equipped to analyze a client's different debt instruments and how they interact, providing advice to clients through their most complex multi-layered debt transactions, which may involve ABLs side-by-side with first/second lien term loans and/or secured and unsecured bonds.

Cahill lawyers active in ABL have experience in a variety of industries including communications, gaming, retail, energy, manufacturing, media, publishing and internet technology. Our partners are also frequent speakers in this area, including at Secured Finance Network's annual Asset-Based Capital Conference.

Private Debt & Direct Lending

In the rapidly developing private credit and alternate investment market, Cahill represents private credit and direct lending providers in financing transactions while also advising on the regulatory, tax, and restructuring aspects of each transaction. Our multidisciplinary, cross-practice team advises on all stages of the transaction cycle and includes assets classes such as senior, stretched-senior, unitranche or junior, second lien, mezzanine and PIK loans/notes, and preferred equity investments. We also provide counsel on special situations lending and rescue financing.

Middle Market Lending

Cahill's position as the leading adviser to banks in leveraged lending produces tangible benefits to clients in middle market transactions, including middle market deals for top-tier sponsors, middle market deals for companies on a path to the larger loan market, and traditional middle market transactions.

While we are best known for our work as trusted advisers to the world's largest banks on their top-tier transactions, those cutting-edge deals are built upon our deep understanding of credit fundamentals and traditional deal terms – terms often found in the middle market. Cahill's leading market knowledge of emerging trends allows our lawyers the dexterity to match the right deal technology and deal terms with each client's particular transaction needs, regardless of deal size.

Project Finance

Cahill's Project Finance, Energy & Infrastructure practice focuses on project development and financings as well as mergers and acquisitions transactions in connection with conventional energy, renewable energy and infrastructure projects in the Americas for project sponsors, developers, banks, institutional lenders, direct lenders, and alternative debt financing providers. In addition, our team focuses on U.S. public-private partnerships for energy, telecommunications, transportation, and social infrastructure projects.