
Alexander M. Kim

COUNSEL
akim@cahill.com

212.701.3330 Phone

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP
32 Old Slip
New York, NY 10005

Alexander Kim is a counsel in the New York office of Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP where he focuses on all matters relating to intellectual property/technology related transactions, and providing advice and counseling on privacy, data protection and cyber security related matters.

Alexander represents leading public and private companies, investors and financial institutions providing advice and counseling on intellectual property, technology, privacy, data protection and cyber security related transactional matters. He has broad experience across a wide spectrum of industries and technologies, including those in the fields of information technology, software, hardware, life sciences, insurance, financial services and retail services. His expertise extends to intellectual property and technology related acquisitions/divestitures, joint ventures, research and development, licensing and trademark prosecution/counseling, as well as assisting clients to navigate through complex privacy, data protection and cyber security issues.

Education

St. John's University School of Law, J.D., 1997, cum laude; Editor, St. John's Law Review

Columbia University, B.S., 1992

Practices

Corporate Advisory

Intellectual Property

Life Sciences

Mergers & Acquisitions

Banking & Finance

Capital Markets

Admission

New York