Chris Bevan is a partner in Cahill's Private Credit, Banking & Finance, and Capital Markets practice groups, where he represents leading investment banks, commercial banks, direct lenders, private credit funds, and other institutional investors in a broad range of financing transactions.

Chris has extensive experience representing the financing sources in privately placed and syndicated secured bank financings, secured and unsecured high yield debt securities, acquisition financing commitments and leveraged buyouts, across a wide array of industries.

Chris represented the financing sources in numerous acquisitions, including the acquisition of Restaurant Brands, the acquisition of eResearch Technology (now Clario) by Astorg and Nordic Capital, the acquisition of Diamond Resorts International by Apollo Global Management, the acquisition of PharMerica by KKR, the acquisition of Diversey by Bain Capital and the acquisition of Ascensus by Stone Point Capital.

Chris has also represented the initial purchasers and underwriters for securities offerings for issuers such as Dish Network, R.R. Donnelly, Standard Industries, Adient plc, ABC Supply, Churchill Downs and Albertsons. He has also represented the lead arrangers and agents in recent loan financings for Iridium Satellite LLC, OMNIA Partners, LLC, Vizient, Inc., Genesys Cloud Services and Topgolf Callaway Brands.
