Marc R. Lashbrook is a partner in Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP's corporate practice group.

Marc represents leading investment banking firms, commercial banks, and public and private companies. Marc's practice focuses on financing transactions, including public and private high-yield, investment grade and convertible debt offerings, syndicated institutional term loans and exchange offers and tender offers. He has represented the financing sources on a number of novel, ground-breaking transactions, including the issuance of $23 billion of financing for T-Mobile in connection with its acquisition of Sprint and $13 billion of financing in connection with the acquisition of Refinitiv by a Blackstone-led consortium.

Marc has also represented leading investment banks in the issuance of equity and equity-linked securities, including the IPOs of Aramark, Burlington Stores and PlayAGS.

Practicing in a variety of industries including gaming, retail, technology, telecommunications, healthcare and real estate, Marc has consistently been named among the nation's top lawyers for capital markets and lending transactions by The Legal 500.
