

Sheila C. Ramesh
PARTNER

212.701.3833 Phone
212.378.4454 Fax
sramesh@cahill.com

Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP
80 Pine Street
New York, NY 10005-1702

Practices

Securities Litigation & White
Collar Defense

Corporate Governance & Investigations

Commercial Litigation

Education

Dartmouth College, B.A., 2005,
High Honors in History, cum laude

Cornell University Law School,
J.D., 2008, cum laude

Admission

New York

Sheila Ramesh is a member of Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP's litigation practice group. She serves as chair of the firm's Hiring Committee and is a member of the firm's Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

Sheila's practice focuses on the defense of complex securities and commercial matters. She represents leading financial institutions and global corporations in high-stakes litigation matters, including issues relating to benchmark rates, securities, and other complex financial products and commercial disputes. She has also led internal investigations and responded to government inquiries arising from alleged violations of banking, antitrust, and securities laws, as well as other laws and regulations. Sheila is recognized as a Future Star by Benchmark Litigation.

SELECTED MATTERS

- Representation of Deutsche Bank in $300 million multijurisdictional commercial litigation.
- Representation of Credit Suisse in multiple putative class action litigations alleging antitrust claims relating to benchmark rates, including foreign exchange, ISDAFix, and Bank Bill Swap Reference Rate.
- Representation of Credit Suisse in putative class action litigation alleging antitrust claims relating to sub-sovereign, supra-sovereign and agency bonds.
- Representation of leading financial institution in SEC, NYAG, and FINRA investigations concerning electronic trading and dark pools.
- Representation of Credit Suisse in putative class action litigation relating to purported conspiracy to fix prices in the market for lending stocks.
- Representation of Credit Suisse in putative class action litigation relating to purported conspiracy to prevent the development of exchange trading for interest rate swaps.
- Won dismissal, affirmed on appeal, of multi-billion dollar suit against Deutsche Bank in connection with foreign exchange transactions.
- Won dismissal of all claims against Deutsche Bank in connection with prime brokerage margining methodology.
- Won dismissal, affirmed on appeal, of all claims against Credit Suisse relating to structuring of collateralized debt obligations.

- Won dismissal of ERISA claims against Credit Suisse in connection with the foreign exchange market.
- Won dismissal of antitrust claims against Time Warner Cable.
- Representation of Barclays in putative class action litigation relating to claims of price fixing in the market for credit default swaps.
- Representation of Credit Suisse in litigation involving management of collateralized debt obligations.