William Kermode is an associate in Cahill Gordon & Reindel LLP where he focuses his practice on matters relating to antitrust, employment, insurance, commercial, and securities litigation.

Billy represents global companies, financial institutions, officers and directors in a wide range of litigation matters, including class actions, as well as in connection with internal investigations and before government and regulatory bodies. Billy also advises companies in connection with FCPA diligence for mergers, acquisitions, and other investments in jurisdictions with high corruption risk and works with clients to implement effective post-acquisition compliance programs. He served as counsel to the Independent Monitor of Toyota Motor Corporation as part of a deferred prosecution agreement, ensuring that the company complied with safety efforts and ultimately developed a centralized compliance program.

In addition, Billy has represented numerous pro bono clients in partnership with Sanctuary for Families.
