
The Life of a Corporate Finance Attorney

Date: 06/19/17

External Link: The Life of a Corporate Finance Attorney

In this article written by Cahill partner Jennifer Ezring for Chambers Associate, Jennifer discusses the daily life of a corporate finance attorney. She shares how an attorney balances serving the client's best interests with the varying factors that could affect the deal and the ability to be flexible. Jennifer describes the work a junior corporate finance associate may do and makes recommendations for relevant coursework a law student can take to help expand their skill set.

Attorney

- Jennifer B. Ezring