
Five Dangers Lurking in the Balance Sheet of your Next Transaction

Date: 07/09/18

External Link: Read Helene's article here

In this article concerning M&A transactions, Cahill partner Helene Banks highlights the prevalence of post-closing purchase-price adjustments and identifies five balance-sheet related issues that deal makers should anticipate and defuse in order to reduce the likelihood of post-closing conflict. The piece was published by the private equity news website PE Hub.

Attorney

- Helene R. Banks