
Helene Banks Publishes "Addressing ESG Issues After the Events of 2020" in Practical Law

Date: 11/23/20

The unprecedented confluence of the events of 2020, including the 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the racial justice movement, extreme climate-related conditions, and the economic slowdown, have significantly impacted the ways in which companies are addressing environmental, social, and governance (ESG) issues. In a new Q&A for Practical Law, "Addressing ESG Issues After the Events of 2020," partner Helene Banks explains how companies are incorporating ESG factors into their corporate strategies, policies, and operations in response to recent events, and provides guidance for companies seeking to enhance their ESG programs.

To read the article, please see below.

Helene has contributed several related articles to Practical Law recently – please click here to read "The Fundamentals of ESG" and click here to read "Board Diversity: Steering the Ship Under the Watchful Eyes of Shareholders, Lawmakers, and Regulators."

Attorney

- Helene R. Banks