
Helene R. Banks Publishes “Shareholder Proposals May Rise After SEC Proxy Changes” in Law360

Date: 08/31/22

In a new article for Law360, partner and chair of Cahill's M&A and Corporate Advisory practice Helene Banks examines the Securities and Exchange Commission's recently proposed amendments to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The proposal would amend three of the 13 substantive bases for exclusion: (i) the substantial implementation exclusion, (ii) the duplication exclusion and (iii) the resubmission exclusion.

Attorney

- Helene R. Banks